PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Research, Evaluation, and Service Conference Co-Organizer

Extending Your Reach: Effective Strategies for Including Traditionally Hard to Reach Populations in Your Services, Evaluation, and Research.

Funded by Ohio Mental Health and Addiction Services (OhioMHAS), UCESC organized and hosted a conference on collecting data from, and delivering services to, traditionally labeled as “hard-to-reach” populations at the University of Cincinnati, May 4, 2015. This conference was designed to help attendees clearly identify populations of interest and collect data from groups that might be traditionally characterized as “hard-to-reach.” A toolkit of useful approaches, methodologies and documents will be provided that will guide users on how to connect evidence-based practice with hard-to-reach populations.

College & University Service

- Member, Assistive Technology & Instructional Design Board, CECH – 2008 to present
- Presenter, University of Cincinnati “Data Day” – 2017
- Presenter, “Power Friday,” CECH – 2015, 2016

Professional Memberships

- American Evaluation Association, 2009 – present
- National Storytelling Network, 2012 – present
 - Treasurer: Storytelling in Higher Education Special Interest Group
- American Educational Research Association – 2015 to present

Technical Training & Coursework

- EDST 8033 Survey Research Methodology, Spring 2018, University of Cincinnati
- EDST 8014 Fundamentals of Evaluation, Spring 2017, University of Cincinnati
